Print Resources Assignment 3: Putting It All Together

Now that you have had a chance to explore the different types of print resources located in the library, it is time to “put the pieces” together.

Please locate three different types of print resources (a circulating book, a reference source, and a periodical) related to your field of study (marketing, culinary, early childhood, etc.).

HINT: The Dewey Decimal Call Number Classification handout (found in your handouts booklet) can help you to find the section of the library where books and resources related to your field of study are located.

Use each of these resources to locate a fact or a piece of valuable information. Record your findings below.

Book

Title: ______________________________________________________________

Author(s) or Editor(s): ________________________________________________

Copyright date: _______________________ Dewey Decimal Call Number: ______________

Please list a fact that would be useful to know in your field: ______________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Periodical (Scholarly or Popular)

Title of magazine or journal: _____________________________________________

Article Title: __________________________________________________________________

Author(s): ___________________________________________________________________

Date of publication: _______________________

Brief piece of information that would be of value in your field: ___________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

Reference Book

Title: ______________________________________________________________

Author(s) or Editor(s): ________________________________________________

Copyright date: _______________________ Dewey Decimal Call Number: ______________

Fact of value to your education: ________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________