NEW CHILDREN’S BOOKS

The Day Leo Said I Hate You!
By Robie Harris, Illustrated by Molly Bang

PUBLISHER: Little, Brown & Co., 2008 CALL #: JF H

Leo is tired of hearing his mom tell him no. Yet when he responds to his Mom with, “I hate you,” he regrets ever saying those words. Molly Bang is the author and illustrator of the Caldecott honor book When Sophie Gets Angry--Really, Really Angry and Ten, Night, Eight. Both of these titles are also available in the library.

Free to Be You and Me
By Marlo Thomas and Friends

PUBLISHER: RP Kids, 2008 CALL #: JF T

Songs, short stories, and poems can be found in this book that celebrates individuality and tries to dispel stereotypes. The year 2008 marks the 35th anniversary of the original release of Free to Be You and Me. A CD is included with the book.

Going to the Firehouse
By Mercer Mayer

PUBLISHER: RP Kids, 2008 CALL #: JF T

Little Critter learns about firemen and fire stations in this easy reader title.

Pete & Pickles
By Berkeley Breathed
Pete enjoys his perfectly predictable life until Pickles the Elephant joins his company and calamity ensues. The illustrations more than extend the theme of friendship in this humorous and delightful tale.

Thump, Quack, Moo: A Whacky Adventure
By Doreen Cronin, Illustrated by Betsy Lewin

PUBLISHER: Atheneum Books for Young Readers, 2008
CALL #: JF C

The crazy barnyard animals are back and ready to celebrate the annual Corn Maze Festival. The library has other titles that feature Duck and his farmyard friends: Click, Clack, Moo: Cows that Type and Click, Clack, Splish, Splash: A Counting Adventure.

The Watsons Go to Birmingham—1963
By Christopher Paul Curtis

PUBLISHER: Laurel Leaf, 2000
CALL #: JF C

Curtis tells the story of the Watson family, natives of Flint, Michigan, as they spend time with their grandmother in Birmingham, Alabama, during the summer of 1963. Curtis’s multicultural and historical novel won a Newbery honor award and a Coretta Scott King honor award.

NEW TEACHING GUIDES

Toddler Storytimes II
By Diane Briggs, Illustrated by Thomas Briggs

PUBLISHER: Scarecrow Press, 2008
CALL #: 372.677 B854t

With 25 themed chapters ranging from subjects like teddy bears to pumpkins, this resource contains ideas for story times including: flannel board patterns, book recommendations, songs and rhymes, and craft ideas.
LIBRARY NEWS

• Student Mentoring Program
  • If you are interested in helping others and gaining some leadership experience along the way, stop by the Sullivan Library to pick up an application for the student mentoring program. You need to have completed at least one quarter at Sullivan University and have a GPA of 2.5 or greater to serve as a mentor. Completed applications may be turned in at the reference desk at the Library and Learning Resource Center. You may contact Hilary Writt at hwritt@sullivan.edu if you have any questions about the student mentoring program.

• Library hours during Thanksgiving Break:
  • Monday—Wednesday, November 24-26          8am-5pm
  • Thursday—Sunday, November 27-30            CLOSED
  • Regular hours resume December 1st.