SULLIVAN UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

Business communication guru Dianna Booher identifies the top 101 mistakes made in emails, presentations, and conversations every day. She briefly examines each one and explains what you need to know in order to avoid future mistakes.

— PUBLISHER SUMMARY

Examines Poe's literary accomplishments and legacy against the backdrop of his erratic, dramatic and sometimes sordid life, including his marriage to his 13-year-old cousin and his much-written-about problems with gambling and alcohol.

— BOOK DESCRIPTION

Winner of the 2005 Global Filipino Literary Award for Poetry, Ms. Gambito's poems comprise an identity crisis in the age of New Media. She writes with verve on the complicated collision of ethnicity, sex, immigration, and nationality, her playfulness and pop-culture savvy offering cover for her surprise attacks of direct, even confrontational engagement.

Versed.
By Rae Armantrout

In recent years, Armantrout's reputation has soared—she began in the '70s as an obscure, early practitioner of language poetry, and now her poems regularly appear in the New Yorker. Her new book comprises two sequences—Versed and Dark Matter—of loosely interlinked poems dealing with the prolific poet's usual subjects (the body, contemporary society, violence) as well as more personal explorations of illness and mortality, all relayed in Armantrout's concentrated, crystalline voice, with a predilection for skipping some steps along the way to sense.
