Carrier: Untangling the Danger in My DNA
By Bonnie J. Rough

PUBLISHER: Counterpoint, 2010
Call#: 362.198 R856c

When the author learns that she carries the genetic material for hypohidrotic ectodermal dysplasia, or H.E.D., she investigates her ancestry, learning more about the disease that affected her grandfather. Readers can see the author struggling with whether or not to have children of her own because she is a carrier.

Children with Cerebral Palsy
By Archie Hinchcliffe; Illus. by Barbara Price and Clare Rogers

PUBLISHER: SAGE Publications, 2007
Call#: 618.92 H659c

In this book that is designed to help health care professionals and child care professionals, the authors cover topics such as: assessment, treatment programs, and appropriate equipment.

Ethics and Professionalism: A Guide for the Physician Assistant
Edited by Barry Cassidy and J. Dennis Blessing

PUBLISHER: F.A. Davis Company, 2008
Call#: 174.2 E843

The editors present ethical issues and use case studies and analysis to help students apply their knowledge to situations like end-of-life ethical concerns and working with clients of different ethnic backgrounds.
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Law and Ethics in Pharmacy Practice</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>By Ruth Rodgers, Catherine Dewsbury, and Andrew Lea</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PUBLISHER: Pharmaceutical Press, 2010</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Designed with students in mind, this guide contains information about legislation and ethical concerns that affect pharmacists and those working in a pharmacy.