NEW BOOKS-June 2010

_Crohn’s Disease and Ulcerative Colitis: An Essential Guide for the Newly Diagnosed_
By Jill Sklar

PUBLISHER: Marlowe and Co., 2007
Call #: 616.344 S628c

In this updated edition, students can learn about both Crohn’s disease and ulcerative colitis. The author, who suffers from Crohn’s disease, presents information about treatment options, diet and lifestyle changes, support groups, and communicating about your disease with family members.

_Digestion and Nutrition_
By Robert Sullivan

PUBLISHER: Chelsea House, 2008
Call #: 612.3 S951d

Mr. Sullivan’s book contains information about the mechanics of digestion and nutrition, proper eating habits, and the more common health issues associated with digestion and nutrition. This title is part of a series called The Human Body: How It Works, and the library has other titles in the series.

_Food and Drug Book of Lists for Regulated Substances_
Compiled by Government Institutes Research Group, Cynthia Adams, Editor

PUBLISHER: ABS Consulting, 2003
Call #: R 344.7304 F686

This book of lists has details on the laws pertaining to regulated drugs and food additives.

_HIPAA for Health Care Professionals_
By Dan and Carole Krager

PUBLISHER: Delmar Cengage Learning, 2008
Call #: 610.68 K89h

The authors provide health care professionals with information about HIPAA, the security rules surrounding it, and specific privacy issues that are involved with HIPAA.
Passages in Caregiving: Turning Chaos into Confidence
By Gail Sheehy

PUBLISHER: HarperCollins, 2010
Call #: 362.0425
S541p

Best-selling author Gail Sheehy, who cared for her terminally ill husband, gives readers guidance on how to care for people who are ill, how caregivers can take care of themselves during the process, and what resources are available to those caring for the sick.

Pediatric Interviewing: A Practical, Relationship-Based Approach
By James Binder

PUBLISHER: Humana, 2010
Call #: 618.92
B612p

Binder gives readers a guide on how to interview pediatric patients and their parents, by covering such topics as: discussing sensitive issues like suicide, communicating bad news to families, and conducting a well-child doctor visit.

Practical Decision Making in Health Care Ethics: Cases and Concepts
By Raymond J. Devettere

PUBLISHER: Georgetown University Press, 2010
Call #: 174.2
D491p

Through a selection of case studies, Mr. Devettere presents readers with ethical issues on a variety of subjects including: life-sustaining treatments, CPR, euthanasia, medical research, transplants, and reproductive issues.

The Tobacco Atlas
By Dr. Omar Shafey, Dr. Michael Eriksen, Dr. Hana Ross, and Dr. Judith Mackay

PUBLISHER: Bookhouse Group Inc., 2009
Call #: R 362.296
S525t

In this reference guide published by the American Cancer Society readers can visually see the impact that tobacco has on world health, economics, and politics. Of particular interest to medical assisting students is the map that shows tobacco usage worldwide among health care professionals.