For each day in 2010 the Library will be testing your knowledge of our book collection—What's the Book?—each morning we will tweet a line from a book in the collection to our Twitter account. We'll give you the answer the following morning along with a picture of the book.

What's the Book?!

March 2010

For 2010 we would like to make READ posters using students and their favorite books. We'll give you the answer the following morning along with a picture of the book. What's the Book?!

The Sullivan University Libraries are now subscribing to Books24X7, a database of books. The Books24x7 On Demand Platform enables users to search, browse, read and collaborate with other users of these vast professional libraries.

SULLIVAN UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES

First sponsored in 1958, National Library Week is a national observance sponsored by the American Library Association. It is a time to celebrate the contributions of our nation's libraries and librarians and to promote library use across America.

Each year during April the Library celebrates National Library Week with libraries—25 -25 -25 activities throughout the week to coincide with National Library Week activities across the country. We'll give you the answer the following morning along with a picture of the book.

National Library Week 2010

• "Books for the 21st Century"- a new book is being released each morning to coincide with National Library Week activities across the country. We'll give you the answer the following morning along with a picture of the book.
