The library will be closed January 16 in observance of Martin Luther King, Jr. Sunday.

Library hours for Winter Quarter:
Monday—Thursday: 7:30am to 9:45pm
Friday: 7:30am to 4:30pm
Saturday: Closed

To celebrate this month the library has created a display featuring books and light reading materials to the university community.

Library Learning Resource Center during the month of January to learn more about information about mentoring.

To celebrate this month the library has created a display featuring books and light reading materials to the university community.

Stop by the Sullivan University Library and mentoring in the corporate world and the mentor program at Sullivan University.

To celebrate this month the library has created a display featuring books and light reading materials to the university community.

Library Learning Resource Center during the month of January to learn more about information about mentoring.

To celebrate this month the library has created a display featuring books and light reading materials to the university community.

Library Learning Resource Center during the month of January to learn more about information about mentoring.

To celebrate this month the library has created a display featuring books and light reading materials to the university community.

Library Learning Resource Center during the month of January to learn more about information about mentoring.

To celebrate this month the library has created a display featuring books and light reading materials to the university community.

Library Learning Resource Center during the month of January to learn more about information about mentoring.