The 2012 Fall graduation, held at St. Matthews Baptist Church in Louisville, was a reason to celebrate for 138 graduates, their families, their friends, and the faculty and staff who worked with them. These graduates earned their degrees at the end of the spring 2012 or summer 2012 quarter. Cynthia Knapek, President of the Leadership Louisville Center, delivered the Commencement Address. She focused her remarks on the theme of gratitude, stating that an attitude of gratitude enriches our life experiences. Awards highlighted the event; graduates and their families enjoyed a reception immediately following the ceremony.

Rather than holding graduations in May like most other collegiate institutions, students graduate from Sullivan College of Technology and Design every January, March, June and September. The College holds two formal commencements in October and April. The 2013 Spring graduation will be held on April 13, 2013.
