The Louie (ADDY®) Awards are hard to earn, they recognize the best work in the advertising industry completed by professionals and students. This year, three SCTD students won silver awards in the annual competition.

Packaging Award
Lauren Harst, Spring 2009 Graphic Design associate degree graduate, was a winner for her piece entitled “Country Chilled Ice Cream.”

Stationary Packaging Award
Diane Myers, Dynamic Web Development student, earned her award for her piece entitled “Adirondack Red and Breakfast.”

Interactive CD/DVD
James Strickland, a recent graduate of the Computer Graphic Design program, earned his silver award for his interactive piece entitled “James Strickland”

Crag Niemann, Chair of SCTD’s Graphic Design department, said, “I love it when our students’ work is recognized as some of the best work out there. I’m looking for one of our students to bring home that gold one of these days.”

Congratulations to these Computer Graphic Design and Dynamic Web Development students and their instructors.

FACULTY & STAFF UPDATES

John Heuglin, computer network administration instructor, was one of eight finalists for the 2009 ATEA Outstanding Technical Teacher Award.

Randy George, CADD department chairperson, received his American Design Drafting (ADDA) Mechanical Drafter certification recently.

Dianne Donovan, CADD instructor, received her ADDA Mechanical Drafter certification recently, as well.

Terri Giacchino, Interior Design department chairperson, recently received her National Council for Interior Design (NCIDQ) certification. This prestigious credential indicates competency in all areas of interior design and is highly respected in the industry.

Sheree Koppel, Academic Dean, was honored recently by Kentucky SkillsUSA as the postsecondary Advisor of the Year.

John Heuglin, Executive Director, was honored recently as the Kentucky SkillsUSA Administrator of the Year.

Read more about SkillsUSA on page 8.