NANCY TAYLOR STYLE SHOW, CHRISTMAS BALL END QUARTER

“Zero Hour” for over 100 Spencerian girls was Friday evening, December 10th, in the Terrace Room of the Kentucky Hotel. The occasion was our Nancy Taylor Christmas Fashion Show which gave the girls, who recently completed the course at Spencerian, their opportunity to show families and friends the visual poise, wardrobe selection, and self-confidence which they had learned in their Nancy Taylor Course.

The young ladies modeled a variety of outfits ranging from casual wear to luxurious ball gowns.

Mr. Roy H. Whalin, President of Spencerian College, extended a welcome to the large number of guests, and introduced Suzanne Von Roenn, Director of the Nancy Taylor Course, who gave the commentary throughout the Show.

During a brief intermission, Mr. Raymond Jones, Vice President and Secretary of Spencerian, presented Mrs. Von Roenn with a lovely bouquet of American Beauty Roses in recognition of her work on the program.

Mr. Charles Whalin, our Vice President and Treasurer, recognized Miss Gail Hirsbrunner as 1965 Miss Nancy Taylor of Louisville and presented Gail with a bouquet of one dozen American Beauty roses. (Gail is a graduate of Seneca High.

Refreshments were served, providing an opportunity for families and friends to meet and visit with the Faculty. From all of the compliments, the girls apparently “learned their lessons” well.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS DANCE

The Christmas Dance, an annual affair at Spencerian, began immediately after the refreshments intermission. With all students and their guests invited. Attendance was high.

Ordie Day’s Orchestra provided a wide variety of dance music. Everyone enjoyed themselves immensely, many staying to hear the band play “Good Night, Ladies” at 1:00 a.m.
