Nancy Taylor Personal Development And Make-Up Seminar To Be Held

In mid-January, Spencerian College will hold a Nancy Taylor Personal Development Seminar for high school seniors throughout the greater metropolitan area. Approximately sixty high school seniors, selected by their counselors and business teachers, will attend the meeting.

The highlight of the day will be a make-up demonstration by a representative of the Make-Up Center, LTD, in New York City.

Mrs. Lois Boyles, a member of the fashion merchandising faculty, will speak to the students on personality and personal appearance. Mrs. Boyles has taught personal development programs for a number of years and is known as an authority in her field.

Fashion co-ordinator and wardrobe development will be taught by Mrs. Martha Austin, Director of Fashion Merchandising and Nancy Taylor at Spencerian.

The January date will be announced in the near future when high school business teachers and counselors are notified.

SGA Holds Convocation Election of New Officers

The auditorium at Catherine Spalding College was the scene of the Student Convocation sponsored by the Spencerian College Student Government Association.

Along with election of officers to the SGA, skits, talent presentations, and music events took place. Spencian musicians provided music for the Convocation.

New officers elected were: President, Larry Badgett; Vice President, Connie Morgan; Secretary, Lois Overpect; and Treasurer, William Williams.

The event, which took place at 9:00 a.m. on December 4 lasted two hours. Students reported directly to the Spalding auditorium on Wednesday and returned to classes at 11:00 a.m.

Student Weight Watchers at Spencerian Find Losing Can Be Fun and Profitable

by Laura McCrea

Strawberry fruit cup, roast turkey, a delicious cherry milkshake—believe it or not, these are some of the delicacies being enjoyed by Spencerian students in the Weight Watchers Program.

Yes, we now have a Weight Watchers group here at Spencerian meeting Mondays, during the fourth and fifth periods in Room 204. Contributing inspiration, encouragement and sometimes a little admonishment, is the group's lecturer, Mrs. Marilyn Wurst, who is a successful weight watcher herself.

It is true, as Mrs. Wurst can tell you, that one does not necessarily have to suffer to lose weight. Because of the variety of foods which are "legal" on the Weight Watchers diet, members do not have to deprive themselves of filling and appetizing meals. Recipes are provided which even a novice can whip up.

In the five short weeks since starting the program, some of the members have made marvelous progress toward their goal. Paula Perry has shed thirty pounds, and Terry...
