Spencerian Students Form Ski Club

by Connie Morgan

Have you heard the latest happening at Spencerian Business College? On October 26, 1973, the Spencerian College Ski Club was formed. It has been affiliated with the Louisville Ski Club. The club's purpose is to promote skiing, provide ski trips at the lowest possible rates, and to provide more activities for Spencerian students and friends. The kick-off will be "Learn to Ski Week" in northern Michigan on December 17, 18 and 19.

The club's sponsor, advisor and instructor is Mr. Fred Hatmaker. Other ski instructors include George Gutt and Shirley Wallace. The acting officers include: George Gutt, President; Jerry Burks, Vice President; Chris Godfrey, Treasurer; and Iris Winkle, Secretary.

Dues for the club are $3.00 per person, $4.50 per couple. Equipment rental will be available. Watch the bulletin board on the second floor for meeting announcements. The first meeting was held November 1, 1973. All Spencerian students, guests, administration, and former students are eligible and invited to join. The interested, please attend the next scheduled meeting or see one of the S.C.S.C. officers.

A few trips presently being taken into consideration include: Lake Geneva Playday Club, Wisconsin; Steamboat Springs, Colorado; and Aspen, Colorado.

Let's take interest, students, and make this club one of Spencerian's greatest attributes.

Business Administration Classes
Set Up Hospitality Tree Business

by Tom Luckett

For several weeks now Spencerian students have been selling and raffling Hospitality Trees. These trees are made by pinning candy and ribbon on a styrofoam cone. The finished product resembles a Christmas Tree.

They are being made by Mr. Sullivan's Business Administration classes. The purpose of this project is to demonstrate the workings of a company to the students.

Each class elects a production manager, sales manager, secretary, and treasurer. In Business Administration I, the production manager is Charles Kaiser and the sales manager is David Jones. In Business Administration II, the production manager is Debbie Newkirk and the sales manager is Artie Blair. Each student in the class invests in a share of stock, usually costing twenty-five cents. Supplies are then bought and production begins. The entire class takes part in the construction of the trees.

But why Hospitality Trees?

Mr. Sullivan explained that these trees are easily made, therefore each person in the class can take part in the production. They are also inexpensive to make so the initial investment by the student can be relatively small.

Weber Represents School On National CSS Committee

Spencerian College Executive Director, Harry V. Weber, has been named by the College Scholarship Service, a division of the College Entrance Examination Board, to serve on its committee on Financial Aid Guidance and Publications. Weber will serve a two-year term along with several other educators from throughout the country. Weber will serve as the representative from business schools throughout the United States.

The purpose of the CSS Committee is to serve in an advisory role with respect to all CSS publications and information distributed by the service to secondary schools, post secondary education, and higher education. Membership involves committee meetings at the CSS office in New York City.

Jack Wigginton, a life-long resident of Louisville, has joined Spencerian College as Director of Public Relations in the state of Indiana. Mr. Wigginton has extensive experience with the National Cash Register Company and served nine years in the U.S. Army.
