Executives took on Anderson College (South Carolina) on the final evening of the tournament. Before more than 2,000 fans, the largest crowd ever to see the women’s team play, the Executives once again came from behind to defeat Anderson College, 84-83. With the victory, the Executives finished their season with a superb 34-2 record.

Sullivan freshman Tora Darden was named to the ten-member All-Tournament Team.

Coaches Comments

When asked to compare this team to her other teams, Coach Laura Litter stated, “This is the best team I have had at Sullivan, and maybe the best team I’ve ever coached.” She added, “They are a dedicated, hard-working group. Every player gives a good effort every day.”

The slogan for the 1993-94 Executives was “Quality in Motion.”

“This amazing team truly made that slogan become a reality,” Litter concluded.

Two All-Americans

Two members of the 1993-94 Executives received All-American honors. Sophomore Demetria Tutt and freshman Tora Darden were named Second Team All-Americans by the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Demetria Tutt was named the Most Valuable Player of the KJCAC Tip-Off Tournament, MVP of the KJCAC All-Conference team and a member of the NJCAA All-Region VII team.

Tora Darden was chosen MVP of
