Sullivan Students Vie for Scholarship

Four Sullivan College secretarial students — Katherine Kelly, Sissy Hale, Angela Hall and Kenya Ford — are among those vying for a scholarship sponsored by Collegiate Secretaries International (CSI).

The CSI scholarship is offered to the most outstanding candidate who also has a financial need. Sullivan College has participated in the scholarship program for over five years, three of which a Sullivan student has been awarded the CSI scholarship.

Among the requirements applicants must meet are that they currently attend an accredited university, college or junior college and have at least a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or above. In addition, students are required to submit an essay detailing why they believe they should receive the scholarship. Two letters of recommendation also are required.

CSI is the collegiate organization of Professional Secretaries International. The major goal of the organization is to serve as a network and referral source for secretaries throughout the country.
