College Adds New “Pentium” Computers

Students are now enjoying access to 20 new Pentium computers that were installed during the Winter quarter. These new computers are another example of Sullivan College’s continued commitment to providing its students with the latest technology.