Executives Sign Letters-of-Intent

Graduating members of the Sullivan Executives are in the process of signing national basketball letters-of-intent. "All seven of our sophomores have been offered scholarships to major universities, which is certainly exciting and a credit to the quality of our program," said Corbett Grigsby, Lexington campus Athletic Director.

Sophomore Wilma Walton has signed with Radford University; Sunday Atkinson has committed to play at Robert Morris University; Brandy Hiller has selected Akron University; and Charmaine Burton has chosen the University of Alabama-Huntsville.

Laekeka Wesley is choosing between Western Michigan University and the University of Maryland-Eastern Shore; Charita Bonner is still deciding between the University of Alabama-Huntsville and the University of Mississippi; and Rente Evans has narrowed her choices to Western Michigan University, the University of Mississippi or Auburn University.
