Sullivan students celebrate Administrative Professional’s Day

Tomorrow’s Administrative Professionals (TAP) celebrated Administrative Professionals’ Day in style. Club members pinned each administrator with a corsage and treated them to lunch.

TAP is just one of many active clubs and organizations at Sullivan University. These clubs are not only fun, but are also an excellent way for students to develop leadership skills and a sense of responsibility.