Computer and Accounting Clubs take trip to the Boulevard Distillers

Sullivan’s Computer and Accounting Clubs attended the Boulevard Distillers in Lawrenceburg, Kentucky, receiving a grand tour while the guide illustrated how bourbon was made. Students learned a great deal about production methods, international finance, and cost accounting, all lessons they can incorporate in their day-to-day classes.