The Event Management class at Sullivan University’s Lexington campus helped with the planning and set-up of Meredith Miles’ wedding, recently held in Louisville, Kentucky at the Doubletree Hotel. Meredith and Matt are the children of Barbara Miles, Early Childhood Education Coordinator on the Lexington campus. During the planning stage, the class worked with local wedding planners who helped implement their ideas. Students also toured four venues in Lexington for ideas on set-up. Lexington Culinary student, Reva Schottenstein, even catered the wedding for approximately 200 guests!

They said, “We do.” Event Management class plan a wedding

The Event Management class at Sullivan University’s Lexington campus helped with the planning and set-up of Meredith Miles’ wedding, recently held in Louisville, Kentucky at the Doubletree Hotel. Meredith and Matt are the children of Barbara Miles, Early Childhood Education Coordinator on the Lexington campus. During the planning stage, the class worked with local wedding planners who helped implement their ideas. Students also toured four venues in Lexington for ideas on set-up. Lexington Culinary student, Reva Schottenstein, even catered the wedding for approximately 200 guests!

They said, “We do.” Event Management class plan a wedding

The Event Management class at Sullivan University’s Lexington campus helped with the planning and set-up of Meredith Miles’ wedding, recently held in Louisville, Kentucky at the Doubletree Hotel. Meredith and Matt are the children of Barbara Miles, Early Childhood Education Coordinator on the Lexington campus. During the planning stage, the class worked with local wedding planners who helped implement their ideas. Students also toured four venues in Lexington for ideas on set-up. Lexington Culinary student, Reva Schottenstein, even catered the wedding for approximately 200 guests!