“Mind the gap!” was a phrase heard students in England Studies Department at Sullivan University, Helen Bongard, Esq., Chair of the Legal considering a trip for 2009 to England. The trip was such a success that Ms. wonder to see judges and barristers ing to see the differences between Supreme Court so this was fascinat-“We routinely take students to Justice,” Ms. Bongard stated, adding, appellate case at the Royal Courts of Justice. Another outstand-trip with attorney and adjunct instructor Duane Osborne. “Another outstanding event was a tour through the four Windsor Castle, saw the crown jewels of the guard at Buckingham Palace and the Rosetta Stone at the British Museum.
“One of the most memorable events was seeing Queen Elizabeth II and several members of the royal family as they left Windsor Castle for the races at Ascot. The queen, along with Prince Phillip, Princess Anne, Prince Andrew and Prince William passed right in front of our group and waved to us!” recalled Helen Bongard, Chair of Sullivan’s Legal Studies department, who organized the trip with attorney and adjunct instructor Duane Osborne. “Another outstanding event was a tour through the four Inns of Court and observing a criminal appellate case at the Royal Courts of Justice.” Ms. Bongard stated, adding, “We routinely take students to observe oral arguments at the Kentucky Supreme Court so this was fascinating to see the differences between American and English appeals. It was wonderful to see judges and barristers in their wigs.”
The trip was such a success that Ms. Bongard and Mr. Osborne are already considering a trip for 2009 to England and Scotland.

Summer Picnic
Sullivan’s student Summer Picnic was fantastic! The weather cooperated, even though we were hot! Everyone enjoyed playing Dodgeball, Cornhole and Horsehoes.104.5 “The Cat,” a popular local radio station did a live broadcast from our front yard, they also brought prizes for the students in addition to providing great music.

Congratulations Graduates!
Sullivan University’s Spring 2008 graduation is history and ‘The Herald’ is pleased to give you highlights of that wonderful event. The formal commencement was held at the beautiful Southeast Christian Church in Louisville, Kentucky. More than 4,500 graduates, family and guests from Sullivan’s campuses in Louisville, Lexington and Fort Knox attended. United States Congressman John Yarmuth was the guest speaker. With smiles and pride, the graduates in their caps and gowns, crossed the stage to receive certificates, diplomas, associate, bachelor’s and master’s degrees from Dr. A.R. Sullivan, Chancellor of The Sullivan University System. Cameras flashed as families and friends cheered their graduates, now armed with the confidence to pursue their career dreams.

Sullivan’s graduations are unique. Rather than one held in May of each year like most other collegiate institutions, Sullivan University graduates students four times a year, every January, March, June and September and holds two formal commencements in April and October. Sullivan’s 2008 Fall graduation ceremony will be held on Saturday, October 11 at Southeast Christian Church. Stephen Michaelides, former Editor of Restaurant Hospitality magazine and a member of Sullivan’s National Center for Hospitality Studies Advisory Board, will be the commencement speaker. Everyone is invited to share in the joy of this wonderful occasion.

Graduate Samantha Claridy is ready to begin her Travel and Tourism career.

Lara Hirst was selected to receive the $5,000 Bachelor of Science in Paralegal Studies Scholarship offered each spring by Sullivan University. Lara began work on her bachelor’s degree in March, 2008. Lara is currently a probation supervisor with the Kentucky Alternative Program in Scott County where she works with attorneys and district court judges to monitor defendants who are on probation for misdemeanor crimes.

Congratulations to Brian Lee, recipient of a $1,000 Paralegal Scholarship sponsored by alum Tony Hall. The Legal Studies Advisory Board’s Scholarship Committee selected Brian out of five outstanding applicants.