Success 'adds' up

Sullivan University is having its third annual Accounting Workshop for high school juniors and seniors. This workshop will begin on June 29 and run through June 30th. The workshop is FREE, the only expense is purchasing the accounting book. During these economic conditions, a free class that can earn you college credit is more valuable than ever. The workshop will allow students to earn Accounting Credits that can be applied towards a degree at Sullivan University or other schools. Interested? Better hurry! Sullivan will be accepting the first 50 qualified students who register. To register, contact Brian Willett at (502) 413-8563 or bwillett@sullivan.edu or sullivan.edu/lp/accountingworkshop

‘High’ times at Sullivan

Many high school students had the chance to see the bright futures awaiting their careers through the recent Sullivan Senior Day. Students had a chance to experience campus first-hand and learn about all of the career-focused programs Sullivan has to offer. In addition to a tour and assistance in choosing a major, families ate a lunch catered by Juleps, attended financial aid workshops, and participated in various optional programs to help students both in the classroom and after they graduate. Students were thrilled to tour The Bakery, Winston’s, and our culinary labs, while other students were excited to get the opportunity to see the “dorm-free living” for housing students. Students and families alike enjoyed the action-packed day of tours and information sessions, but were especially excited about Career Services and their job search assistance. It’s nice to know you will always have Sullivan’s Career Services staff on your side from the start of college all the way to retirement! At the event, many students made Sullivan their college of choice and applied to the university to lock in their tuition.
